THESE ARE THE PEOPLE IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD

Paul and Edna Pointer celebrated 64 years of marriage on April 13th. They met while in a Pontiac middle school and were married when Paul was 17 and Edna was 16. Paul spent some time in the Navy. They had 4 boys and 2 girls and have numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren. As of April 5th they have a great-great granddaughter. Paul was a bartender, working at such places as Airway Lanes, Pine Knob and Orchard Lake Country Club (18 years). Edna worked for Mills Products for 14 years. Mills manufactured oven door windows. Paul owned his own bar in Alpena for 8 years. They moved to Breaker in '96 because they liked the area and the house. Paul planted 2 grapevines a few years ago that yield a ton of grapes. Since canning grapes is work, they give them away.

Amy Cooperrider is the 11-year-old daughter of Toni Tiernan. She lives on Embarcadero. Amy is in the 5th grade at Grayson Elementary and will attend Mason Middle School in the fall. She likes Math best and Social Studies least. Not only does she play the clarinet in the school band; she also plays short stop and catcher on the softball team. Outside of school she plays basketball for the AAU, Waterford Wave. She enjoys water skiing and tubing. At this point in her life she thinks she might be a chef or a kindergarten teacher. Amy is the youngest of 3 girls and because she is the youngest, she thinks that her mother spoils her. She likes living in the area because of the lake in the neighborhood and her friends at school. In the summer she spends 2 weeks in Wisconsin with her Dad and some of his family. She also gets to go camping with her Mom and second Dad. She has two dogs, Buddy and Jessie (in the picture) with whom she likes to play.
