LOHA CHILI COOK-OFF AND MUSIC IN THE PARK

Saturday, September 6th at 6:00 pm

All LOHA members are invited to bring a pot of chili and enter our chili cook-off contest. Participants will taste all entries. They will then cast their vote to determine who has the best chili in the neighborhood. Please bring your own beverages. After eating chili and deciding on the winner, our MUSIC IN THE PARK will begin at 7:00 pm. The entertainment will be the ORION COMMUNITY DRUMMERS. There will also be a bonfire, weather permitting. Any questions can be directed to Pam Pope (673-1802) or Sharon Gwin (674-3305).

THESE ARE THE PEOPLE IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD

THANKS to all the LOHA Board Members and Others who worked to create community.

Gordon Woolslayer, President, supported all the Board Members, worked to get a hot water heater installed in the Weenie Shack, played music at the Family Fun Day and Luau & successfully ran all meetings.

Tim Daly, Vice-president, organized the beach opening & closing schedules, took video pictures at the beach opening, did odd jobs like cleaning the beach, cooking pancakes and selling 50/50 tickets.

Carolyn Bree, Secretary, recorded meeting minutes and kept the community informed of events and news through the Newsletter.

Lynn Woolslayer, Treasurer, purchased a new refrigerator for the Weenie Shack and paid the Association's bills. As Beach Attendent she made sure that things went smoothly at the beach, cleaned up the goose poop and tiled the Weenie Shack floor.

Lou Tiernan, Boating Director, made sure that keys were made for the boat dock and ramp, fixed the boat dock lock and made sure that boat slips were filled

Lee Howell, Expeditor, fixed and installed the LOHA sign, organized the beach clean up, got more sand for the beach and with 3 other men shoveled it onto the beach, had steps and a railing to the water installed.

Don Osborne, Legal Director, filled the vacant position. He cooked pancakes at 2 breakfasts, helped at the July 4th events and the Family Fun Day & Luau. He is pursuing winter boat storage in the beach parking lot.

Sharon Gwin, Promotional Director, organized the beach opening, advertised the garage sale, sent out 12 Welcome Packets, worked at all the summer's activities and proof read all the Newsletters.

Dan King, Safety Director, purchased new floats for the swim area, installed and will take out the buoys, replaced broken boards on the merry-go-round and checked on the safety of the playground equipment.

Pam Pope, Social Director, planned and executed 1 winter, 8 summer and 2 fall very time consuming activities. These events included shopping, cooking and facilitating.

Bethany Nelddrett puts the Newsletters, Minutes of Board and Regular meetings and pictures of recent beach activities taken by Darryl Moore on the LOHA website, <LOHPA.COM>
