THESE ARE THE PEOPLE IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD

Char Valente, on the left, lives with her husband, Joe and children Eric & Alaina on Aquarina. They've been there for 20 years. Char has taken care of the flowerbed on Walton/Aquarina for 12 years and the one on Walton/Embarcadero for 8 yrs until K. Koenigbauer took over that one. She saw flowers at the beginning of other subs and decided to create a more attractive entrance. Char said that she likes the beach association and the friendliness of the people involved. Alaina said that she liked the beach and looks forward to Family Fun Day, especially the greased watermelon contest. Char works part time at University Dental. Before she returned to work she spent many hours with the children at the beach. Joe is an independent contractor. He donated the display board for the Weenie Shack and those used to announce activities.

Karen Koenigbauer, on the right, lives with her husband, Tom, and daughter Emily (19) and son Scott (14). They've lived on Levee for 22 years. After 10 years of schooling Karen finished her Social Work Degree from Wayne State U in 2009. She recently started working full time for the Macomb Oakland Regional Center. Prior she worked part time there and part time at the Independence Township Senior Center. Karen has cared for one of the entrance's flowerbeds for 4 years. She also established a sensory garden in Clintonwood Park for the senior center. There are 5 raised beds, one for visual (colorful flowers), auditory (wind chimes), touch (textured leaves), smell (roses & lavender) & taste (edible plants). Tom was LOHA treasurer for many years. Emily will be attending Saginaw Valley University in the fall. Scott can often be seen on his skateboard or out on the pontoon boat.
