CANAL SLUDGE REMOVAL

The dredging company removed 3 or 4 truckloads of material from the LOHA Park on May 5th. They expect to remove more material as soon as it is dry enough, possibly beginning May 28th. They will not be paid until it is all removed. Afterwards, a neighborhood company will be planting and restoring the area to its original condition.

OUR SYMPATHY GOES TO THE family of Henry (Hank) Burt a resident, the Wells family in the passing of Christina's grandmother, Diane Owen, and to the Bowling family in the death of Keith's father.

THESE ARE THE PEOPLE IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD

Jim Brumm is one of the expeditors. He and Lisa moved here 3 yrs. ago.

Jim is a network analyst at Magna. He worked at EDS for 18 years after getting out of the Army in 1990. He holds a BS and Master's in computer engineering. Has worked in construction and business. Lisa and Jim are married for 6 yrs. He has fraternal 17-year old twins, who graduated from high school this year. He grew up in Beverly Hills, MI.

Keith Bowling is the other expeditor. He and his wife, Sharon, moved here last August from Plymouth to be close to their grandchildren, who are ages 6, 3-1/2 and 14-month old twins. Keith met Mary Lou Osborne, who encouraged him to become involved. Keith has an electrical engineering degree from Wayne State. He retired in '18 from Ford Motor Co. He and Sharon are married 36 years. They like the people in the neighborhood and look forward to taking their granddaughters to the beach.

Amanda Pieciak is this year's beach attendant. Pictured with her are 2 of her 4 children, Jax & Ella (who cleans up after the geese). Amanda spent many summers at her great grandmother's, Barb Matousak, house, which she bought in '18. She has a BS degree from OU, and in normal times she works for an attorney. She remembers spending summers at the beach and participating in Halloween.

LOHA LITTLE FREE LIBRARY is now at the beach entrance. It belongs to any resident in the neighborhood and is free. Take a book. If you see something you would like to read, take it. You do not have to give a book, at the time that you take one. Share a book. After you have read it, return it to this library or pass it on to a friend. Be a friend of the library and share books whenever you can. If the library is full, please do not place books on the ground. Put them in the library when there is room. I would like to thank Adam Stephens, who donated his time and talent in constructing the library for us. He is the steward for all the Little Free Libraries in Waterford Twp. including the ones at the parks, schools, and various locations. If you would like to donate books, you can go to Facebook and search "Waterford little free library" and Adam's information is posted on this page. Mark the box "For LOHA" if you want the books to specifically go to our library.
